THE RICHMOND AND ALLEGHANY RAILROAD AN EXTRA SESSION ?-DEMOCRATIC AMEND-MENTS TO THE APPROPRIATION BILL-THE JURORS' TEST-OATH-THE RIVER AND HAR-BOR BILL-PERSONAL-BUSY DAY-THE BRA-ZILIAN STEAMSHIP SUBSIDY-THE CATTLE TRADE WITH ENGLAND, &C. [From Our Regular Correspondent.]

Washington, February 11.-There was conference here to-day of the directors and friends of the Richmond and Alleghany railroad, and Mr. Parsons, who attended it, left for your city this evening. After talking over the condition and prospects of this important improvement it was understood that Senators Jones, of Nevada, and Blaine, General Ewing, and others prominently connected with it, will go to Richmond Friday night or Saturday morning to look into the condition of affairs there. In the party I am informed there will be well known western senators not heretofore mentioned as taking any special interest in the scheme. It is understood that the conference was of the opinion that a president of the road should not be elected until it is made an assured fact by the removal of every hindrance now in its way. In fact, it is hardly probable that either Senators Blaine or Jones, or Mr. Keane of California, now prominently mentioned in connection with the presidency, would be willing to accept under any other circumstances.

THE PROSPECTS OF AN EXTRA SESSION-MR. HAYES AND AN EXECUTIVE SESSION OF THE SENATE.

After last night's Democratic caucus it is generally conceded that an extra session is inevitable. I asked an Illinois Republican to-day of experience, and with the best sources of Republican information, if he thought there would be an extra session. and he replied, " If you will put your questhe Republican senators and representatives settlers. intend to oppose the proposed amendments to the bitter end; that this, he believed, of course would defeat the appropriation bills. He did not think, however, that an extra session would be called right away, as Democratic congressmen, he said, desired, but it would be deferred until June, or perhaps until September. I suggested that the want of money would compel an earlier call; but he thought that the judges and department officials could do as well without money as members of Congress. He did not think it at all unlikely that Mr. Hayes would call an executive session of the Senate immediately after the 4th of March. On this point a Democratic congressman remarked that the President had no reason to be illiberal to the Democrats, as he cannot run his Administration without Democratic support, and must rely hereafter on Demoeratic senators, and not on Conkling & Co., to confirm his appointments. 'The declaration of Mr. Thurman in caucus last night that it is the duty of the people's representslives to refuse to appropriate the people's money except upon such conditions as will secure all the people equal rights before the law, was quoted to-day and complimented by Democrats in discussing the situation.

THE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS AMENDMENTS. The following is the substance of the amendments which the Democrats in caucus have agreed to incorporate into the legislative, judicial, and executive appropriation bill: 1st.
